

The Veterinary History Society

The History of Veterinary Ophthalmology

Wednesday 4 September 2024

St John's College, St John's Street, Cambridge, CB2 1TA

- 10:30 Arrival and coffee/tea
- 11:00 David Williams Casey Albert Wood, the ultimate polymath – Ophthalmologist, Ornithologist and Ophthalmic Historian.
- 11:30 Carole Jones Cataract Surgery, the first 5,000 years.
- 12:00 Alison Skipper Progressive Retinal Atrophy: the hidden story.
- 12:30 Paul Watkins Edward Nettleship and the dilator.
- 12:45 Robin Bone Hypovitaminosis A in Terrapins.
- 13:00 Lunch
- 14:00 Sheila Crispin From Clinical Examination to Molecular Genetic Insights, part 1.
- 14:30 Cathryn Mellersh From Clinical Examination to Molecular Genetic Insights, part 2.
- 15:00 Gustavo Aguirre The implementation of the Companion Animal Eye Registry (CAER) program to control inherited eye disease in dogs in the US.
- 15:30 Discussion and finish.

There is parking available at St John's College, in the carpark accessed via Northampton Street or another carpark on Queen's Road - if you are wanting to park please contact David Williams dlw33@cam.ac.uk. Cambridge Park-and-Ride on Madingley Rd can also be used with bus stops near St John's College.

Application Form

VHS Meeting 4 September 2024

Name..... Email.....

Please reserve me place(s) on Wednesday 4 September @ £40.00 each Payments: cheque payable to the 'Veterinary History Society' or, by bank transfer to 20-77-62, 00874221, please identify yourself with the payment.

If you are paying by bank transfer, please email Clare to let her know you are coming.

Please reply to Clare Boulton, 321 Gladbeck Way, Enfield, EN2 7HR or by email: veterinaryhistorysociety@gmail.com

Please reply by 23 August 2024